Independent Stampin' Up! Demonstrator

lindaspapercraft.co.uk

Hello, I hope you have had a lovely Christmas and are looking forward to what 2022 will bring.

New Catalogues!!

A couple of things a Stampin' Up! New Year always brings is a new Mini catalogue and Sale-a-bration, free stuff!! Both go live on 4th January 2022. I have enclosed a little card; I used the Awesome Otters stamp set which is from the Sale-A-Bration catalogue and you can get it for free if you spend £45 from either the Annual Catalogue or the January-June Mini Catalogue! Every time you spend £45 or £90, not including shipping, between Tuesday 4th January to Monday 28th February you can choose a free gift from the Sale-a-bration catalogue.

For local ladies I will be putting an order in on Tuesday 4th January if you want to save postage, you will also get an extra 10% of your order to spend on extra goodies as well as your Sale-a-bration freebies!! Contact me for more details.

In-person Classes

From January all my in-person classes will be bring your own adhesives so I can avoid putting the prices up. I will have some adhesives for sale at my classes if you want any advice just send me a message.

Ashton On Mersey URC, 3rd Wednesday of the month

The next class at Ashton On Mersey URC is Wednesday 19th January from 7pm. In keeping with tradition, we will be making age and anniversary cards, there will also be a Valentines card for those who wish to make one. Have a think about any big birthdays or anniversaries coming up this year, bring a list so you get the numbers right! If you aren't already booked on and want to join us let me know.

Sunday Stamping – Sundays, 3rd Sunday of the month

I am thrilled to announce the monthly, Sunday afternoon class returns in January and will be at Ashton on Mersey United Reform Church!! The next class is Sunday 20th February from 2pm. I am taking bookings so contact me if you want to join us.

Card Making at Ashton on Mersey URC – Fridays, every 2 weeks

New Class!!! From Friday 14th January I will be running a fortnightly class starting at 10am. In this new class you will be making cards from scratch, you will be doing all the cutting and scoring yourself and I will be introducing some design and specialist techniques too. You will need to bring some basic craft kit with you, but don't worry if you are a beginner as I have spares you can use.

On-Line Classes

I plan to continue these as I know many of you enjoy them, as do I.

Coffee and Card – YouTube

This is a weekly prerecorded video class which is released at 11am every Thursday during the month. You can watch it any time and craft along at your own pace. Each month features different products, the kit includes everything you need you just need to add ink and adhesives.

January's Coffee and Card costs £38 and features the Flowers of Friendship stamp set and punch bundle and the first video will be released on Thursday 6th January. This home décor piece is one of the projects you will be making and will fit in to a standard 23cm square frame (frame not included).

Saturday Product Class – 22nd January 10:30am on Zoom

This month we will be using the Forever Fern stamp set on page 71 of the annual catalogue. A versatile set with lots of foliage for background and feature images as well as some lovely sentiments. £28 for the stamp set and kit, if you already have the stamp set you can swap it out for a different one. If you want to upgrade and include the coordinating Forever Flourishing dies you can add them for £30.

Sunday Simply Stamping – 13th February from 10:30am on Zoom

A relaxing Sunday morning class costing £12 making 4 individual cards in the comfort of your own home. The kit will include everything you need, you just need a few of your own stamps, inks and adhesive. If you haven't already signed up and want to join just let me know.

That's all for now!! Any questions or to book onto any of the classes you can drop me an email or send me a message.

Take care, stay safe and I hope to catch up with you soon,
